

Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement 2017

Global Sourcing

Introduction

Modern Slavery and human trafficking is a growing issue driven by the rapid rise in global migration. The problem exists in every region of our world and in every type of economy, whether industrialised, developing, or in transition.

Leidos Supply Limited (LSL) has a zero tolerance approach to all forms of modern slavery and human trafficking, and aim to be alert to the risks, however small, by working closely with our suppliers and colleagues.

Our business and supply chains

Leidos Europe Limited (LEL) was awarded the U.K. MoD's Logistic Commodities and Services Transformation (LCS[T]) contract in August 2015.

As a wholly owned subsidiary of LEL, LSL manages the procurement and purchasing processes for commodity products, using best practice methodologies to ensure that the U.K. Armed Forces have the right product, at the right prices, delivered in line with their needs.

Some of the products that we source come, indirectly, from overseas including China, India, Pakistan and Eastern Europe.

Our approach for ensuring compliance

Internal – with our colleagues:

As part of our on-going commitment to act ethically at all times, we aim to:

- Provide guidance, advice, and training for our Commercial colleagues including completion of, and on-going adherence to, the Chartered Institute of Purchasing & Supply (CIPS) online 'Ethical Procurement and Supply' eLearning

- Ensure that all internal recruitment processes include completion of eligibility to work in the U.K. checks for all employees

- Ensure that our tenders, contracts, and terms and conditions include our expectations of our suppliers' policies and obligations relating to modern slavery and human trafficking.

External – with our suppliers:

- Aim to complete audits of identified high-risk suppliers, including a review of their policies relating to modern slavery and human trafficking

- Ensure our suppliers are aware of the risks relating to modern slavery and human trafficking throughout their supply chain

- Include clauses in the standard LSL terms and conditions in order to ensure that our suppliers are aware of our expectations and their obligations relating to modern slavery and human trafficking

- Reserve the right to terminate any contract, at any time, if instances of modern slavery or human trafficking are exposed.
