

MMCG Holdings Ltd : Modern Slavery Statement 2016/17

This statement has been published in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It sets out the steps taken by MMCG Holdings Ltd during its financial year ending 30 April 2017 to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains.

Our business

We are a provider of residential care and support services and, operate a number of care homes across the UK. We also acquire land and develop purpose-built care home facilities.

Our supply chains

Our supply chains include property related services (construction and maintenance), procurement of temporary/agency staff, facilities maintenance, utilities and waste management.

Our policies on slavery and human trafficking

We have a zero tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking and are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Modern Slavery Policy has been prepared and reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains. In addition, we have taken the action of reviewing and updating other relevant policies, including our whistleblowing policy, employee handbook and recruitment policy to reflect the importance of being aware of the need to identify and report modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chains.

We have and will continue to take further steps to combat slavery and human trafficking. This includes updating our standard terms and conditions with suppliers to ensure that the organisations we contract with have the same commitment to eradicating modern slavery and human trafficking as we do and obtaining information from our suppliers of staff about to determine the risk profile for their organisation and the staff they source and provide to us.

This statement is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year commencing 1 May 2016 and ending 30 April 2017.

Our senior management team have the general responsibilities for compliance with our Modern Slavery Policy
