Human rights due diligence and supply chain

Process for assessing human rights risks and impacts	Further, we monitor and assess our supply chain for compliance related to product safety, labor laws, and human-trafficking concerns. In addition, we maintain a social compliance program intended to promote compliance with our Vendor Code of Conduct, which requires adherence to local labor, safety, and environmental laws. The program employs numerous resources, including inspections conducted by buying agents and audits conducted by leading third-party auditors.	Wepage: Our Approach to Sourcing and Human Rights	https://corp.rossstores.com/responsibility/conducting-business-ethically/our-approach-to-sourcing-and-human-rights/
Heightened human rights due diligence in Conflict Affected and High Risk Areas (CAHRAs)	We require suppliers to identify the source of Conflict Minerals incorporated in or consumed by the manufacturing of products they provide. As necessary, we perform due diligence regarding the source of those minerals.
