

Company: Hewlett Packard Enterprise

Date: October 1, 2018

RE: Hewlett Packard Enterprise linked to human rights abuse in the occupied Palestinian territories

HPE is strongly committed to socially responsible business practices and has been throughout its history. Our work in Israel is consistent with our values and standards. It is not our policy to take sides in political disputes between countries or regions. Instead, we are committed to making the benefits of technology available to all people as a means to learn, to work and to thrive.